

Vajiram & Ravi - Essay Module

Course Description

Essay Paper in civil services examination requires the student to exhibit not only the art of writing, but also the art of thinking. Traditional essay classes focus on the former, while ignoring the latter. Our Essay module is intended to harness and harmonise these two vital components so as to optimise the examination scores of the course participants. The course will be completed in twelve sessions, and it comprises of nine lectures and three full-length simulated tests. Nine lecture classes will be composed of two theory classes and seven area-wise lectures. Students will be taught a host of tangible innovative techniques which can uniquely enhance the rating of their essays. Within the area-wise lectures, all potential topics will be taught. Similarly, due stress will be given to ignite the original thinking capabilities of the students with reference to these topics.

The test-papers will be diagnostically evaluated so as to bring out the vulnerabilities and strengths of students. The tests are periodically placed in the course so that academic progress of each student can be tracked. Classes will be conducted three days a week, i.e. on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. The course starts on 16th of June and finishes on 11th of July. The course fee is Rs.3500. Admission is open from 3-6-2010.

“The essay is a literary device for saying almost everything about almost anything”

Aldous Huxley