Dear Student,

The remaining part of the Prelim-Cum-Main General Studies course to cover Social Issues, Current Affairs etc., will commence on 17th August 2010 and may last upto last week of September 2010. You are requested to inform us by return of post by 10th August 2010, whether you would attend the classes personally or would take Volume III and IV of General Studies material by post without attending classes. If we do not hear from you by 10th August 2010, we will presume that you are not interested in attending classes. We, therefore, request you to communicate to us about your option latest by 10th August 2010 indicating the timing of the class, you have attended in October 2009 – March 2010 session. The facility to attend the remaining part of the General Studies course is available to you only for the year 2010 and it cannot be carried over to next year under any circumstances. If you decide to attend the remaining part of the General Studies course, as soon as you reach Delhi, please contact us telephonically 011-43306017 (11 AM – 5 PM) or personally to find out the timing of the classes. You may also inform us about your participation by email: vajiramoctober2009@gmail.com. You are requested to inform us, even if you opt not to attend the classes with your current address to enable us to send you the study material by post. We will not despatch the material by post till we receive communication from you. Identity card may please be produced on demand.
